Join a Volunteer Guided Tour of Asakusa

ASAKUSA

Asakusa, one of Tokyo's most traditional and lively neighborhoods, is waiting for you to visit. Sensoji Temple, otherwise known as Asakusa Kannon Temple, typifies the area's glorious past. Browsing for souvenirs along Nakamise, a genuinely Japanese shopping mall, will be your Tokyo's unforgettable experience.

Under the leadership and sponsorship of the Taito City Office, Tokyo SGG(*) Club conducts FREE guided tours of Sensoji Temple and its neighborhood as follows:

Day : Saturday&Sunday
Starting Time : 10:30 a.m. and 1:15 p.m.
Hour : Approximately One hour
(*Systematized Goodwill Guide)

To participate in a tour, please come to the SGG Club counter on the first floor of Asakusa Culture Tourist Information Center, located across from the well-known Kaminarimon Gate of Sensoji Temple, as indicated on the map below. Please arrive 10 minutes before each scheduled starting time.

＊The number of participants may be limited on a first-come-first-served basis.
＊The tour may be cancelled without prior notice.
