I am very glad to have our guide bring us around Asakusa's major tourism spot as I was planning to go anyways.
However with him we were able to understand the history and significance of every spot, especially when due to bad weather, a lot of things were closed or suspended.
We wouldn't have known otherwise.
He was very patient, very nice and able to convey through English well.
We were also very thankful for bringing us to the restaurant we spoke about during the tour which made our early day trip in Asakusa smooth and easy having just arrived from a midnight flight. (SINGAPORE)

Highly recommend joining the walking tour of Ueno Park!
Our volunteer guide was exceptionally friendly and warm.
He patiently guided us through the vast grounds of Ueno Park, sharing fascinating historical insights about the many landmarks, statues, and sites within the park.
His explanations brought the history and significance of each location to life, allowing us to gain a much deeper appreciation of the park's rich cultural heritage.
We are truly grateful to him for generously volunteering his time and expertise to show us around.
Thanks to him, we were able to better understand and appreciate the beauty, history, and charm of Ueno Park. (Singaporean)

Wonderfully interesting.
The guide spent time and told stories of many interesting places within the park. My view of Japan has been deepened thanks to his time today.
This is the best thing I have done so far in Japan, as it blends old and new, the cultural basis to the modern world.
Thanks SGG Club for the work you do!
Hope to see you again. (Australia)

We had a lovely guide. Even though, me and my partner were the only two joining the tour, he really took the time to explain everything to us.
There was even time for questions, which he could answer all (even really specific-historic questions).
Moreover, he was willing to take pictures of us.
Definitely recommend this tour to other people!!!
Thank you for showing us around Ueno and sharing your knowledge!
We felt really welcome. (Dutch)
